

Palmetto Bluff

Coastal South Carolina | Bluffton, South Carolina

For almost two decades, EMPIRE Zoysia has been flourishing in the Palmetto Bluff community of coastal Bluffton, South Carolina. EMPIRE gave developers the solution to a myriad of landscape issues while providing a look that exemplifies this natural, seaside neighborhood.

“It has good shade tolerance. It has good sun tolerance. It’s the most diverse grass we have found that we can use on a project of this size that will work anywhere we put it.”

— Ike Hill, The Lindsay Company
